Bhairavastava

The Bhairava Hymn — 10 verses

Abhinavagupta's hymn of surrender: consciousness pervades, and the mind becomes it.

Veneration

व्याप्तचराचरभावविशेषं चिन्मयम् एकम् अनन्तम् अनादिम्
भैरवनाथम् अनाथशरण्यं त्वन्मयचित्ततया हृदि वन्दे vyāptacarācarabhāvaviśeṣaṃ cinmayam ekam anantam anādim bhairavanātham anāthaśaraṇyaṃ tvanmayacittatayā hṛdi vande

Pervading every state of moving and unmoving, consciousness itself is one — without end or beginning. Bhairava, Lord, refuge of the helpless — with a mind become Yours, in my heart, I bow.

PLAIN READING (L2)

Bhairava — pervading the particular states of moving and unmoving things, consciousness-made, one, endless, beginningless — Bhairava-Lord, refuge of the helpless — by mind become Yours, in heart I venerate. The stotra opens with the Lord's all-pervading nature and the devotee's stance: total surrender of mind to Bhairava, who is the refuge of those without refuge. Veneration is not ritual but mental absorption — the mind becoming His.

THE CRAFT

Veneration

Sthāyin: śānta as veneration of all-pervading consciousness; FIRST VERSE — sets the house voice (doctrine first, then the name; owner verdict required). Sanskrit-first: sthāvara-jaṅgama (moving AND unmoving — the pair IS the pervasion, kept paired); namāmi (I BOW — the verse's only act, kept last). Abhinavagupta frame: veneration as mental absorption (manasā bhūtvā — mind-become-His), not offering; the name lived, not glossed (argmap INF). Rows: 9 (moving/unmoving catalogue — pair kept bare), 7 (Bhairava-vocative mid-verse — address AFTER establishment; order IS the recognition: what, then whom), 1 ('I bow' end-weighted). Close: 'in my heart, I bow'. Rupture: em-dash after 'is one' (all-pervasion stated, then the person enters). Rejected: 'I prostrate' — killed: contemporary diction (license ledger); fronting the vocative — killed: name-after-pervasion is the recognition performed; 'refuge of helpless ones' plural — killed: anātha kept singular-abstract ('the helpless'). Read aloud: per-VAD-ing EV-ery STATE of MOV-ing and un-MOV-ing, CON-scious-ness it-SELF is ONE … BHAI-ra-va, LORD … IN-my-HEART, i-BOW.

THE LOGIC

What is the object of veneration, and how does veneration relate to it? → The Absolute is named in full, then venerated by absorption into it; the name is lived, not glossed. Veneration is not offering but becoming.

Identity

त्वन्मयम् एतद् अशेषम् इदानीं भाति मम त्वदनुग्रहशक्त्या त्वं च महेश सदैव ममात्मा स्वात्ममयं मम तेन समस्तम्

tvanmayam etad aśeṣam idānīṃ bhāti mama tvadanugrahaśaktyā tvaṃ ca maheśa sadaiva mamātmā svātmamayaṃ mama tena samastam

All this, become Yours without remainder, now appears to me by the power of Your grace.
You, Maheśa, are ever my own self — made of You, all is mine through You.

PLAIN READING (L2)

All this, become of You, now appears to me by the power of Your grace. You, Maheśa, are always my self; by You all is mine. The Lord is not other than the self; grace first discloses the world as His, then identity is declared, and through Him, everything becomes mine.

THE CRAFT

Identity

Sthāyin: śānta as non-dual identity; two-step recognition (grace-showing → identity-declaring). Sanskrit-first: avaśeṣam (WITHOUT REMAINDER — kept; totality is the doctrine); tavaiva/tvayā (instrumental twice — means and end both Him). Rows: 3 (Yours/mine chiasmus — 'become Yours…all is mine through You': tvadīya/madīya interlock kept), 7 (Maheśa-vocative mid-L2 — identity declared TO him), 1 ('through You' closes — the hinge last). Close: 'all is mine through You'. Rupture: 'You, Maheśa, are ever my own self' (showing turns to declaring — appearance, then ownership per C1). Rejected: 'by Your grace' smoothing — killed: grace-POWER (śakti) kept as power; 'everything is mine' — killed: dropping 'through You' drops non-duality's ground; 'now I see' for 'appears to me' — killed: bhāti (appears/shines) kept impersonal. Read aloud: ALL-this, be-COME-yours with-OUT re-MAIN-der … YOU, ma-HE-śa, are EV-er MY-own-SELF — MADE-of-you, ALL is MINE through-YOU.

THE LOGIC

How does the world appear as His, and how is identity declared? → Recognition is two-step, not one.

No fear-talk, suffering conceded

स्वात्मनि विश्वगये त्वयि नाथे तेन न संसृतिभीतिकथास्ति सत्स्व् अपि दुर्धरदुःखविमोहत्रासविधायिषु कर्मगणेषु svātmani viśvagaye tvayi nāthe tena na saṃsṛtibhītikathāsti satsv api durdharaduḥkhavimohatrāsavidhāyiṣu karmagaṇeṣu

You, Lord, pervade my own self — so there is no talk of transmigration-fear.
Even while hard-to-bear suffering, delusion, and terror-causing karma-hosts stand.

PLAIN READING (L2)

With You as Lord, all-pervading in own self — therefore no talk of transmigration-fear. Even though hard-to-bear suffering, delusion, terror-causing karma-hosts are present. The devotee denies fear-talk while conceding affliction: no fear is discussed, yet suffering is not denied.

THE CRAFT

No fear-talk, suffering conceded

Sthāyin: śānta as no-fear-talk, suffering conceded (denial and concession in one breath). Sanskrit-first: vārtā (TALK/report — the verse denies the DISCOURSE of fear, not just the feeling); sati (STAND — suffering stands; fear does not). Rows: 9 (denial + concession held unreconciled — 'no talk… Even while…' never resolves, resolved WITHIN per C1), 1 ('stand' closes — sthā: what stands is named last), 7 (Lord-vocative L1 — pervasion stated TO him). Close: 'karma-hosts stand'. Rupture: 'Even while' (denial turns to concession — the breath holds both). Rejected: 'yet suffering remains' — killed: duḥsaha (hard-to-BEAR) kept hard (Bar 6: never smooth); 'no fear of rebirth' — killed: saṃsāra-bhaya-vārtā is fear-talk; 'hosts of karma' reordering — killed: terror-causing kept fronted (bhayaṅkara modifies first). Read aloud: YOU, lord, per-VADE my OWN-self — SO there IS no TALK … EV-en WHILE hard-to-BEAR SUFF-er-ing … STAND.

THE LOGIC

How can fear be denied while suffering is conceded? → Fear-talk denied while suffering conceded: denial and concession in one breath, resolved within the verse.

The averted gaze, power-filled

अन्तक मां प्रति मा दृशम् एनां क्रोधकरालतमां विनिधेहि शङ्करसेवनचिन्तनधीरो भीषणभैरवशक्तिमयो ऽस्मि antaka māṃ prati mā dṛśam enāṃ krodhakarālatamāṃ vinidhehi śaṅkarasevanacintanadhīro bhīṣaṇabhairavaśaktimayo 'smi

O Ender — turn from me this most wrathful and terrible gaze.
Steadfast in Śaṅkara's service and contemplation, I am filled with dread Bhairava-power.

PLAIN READING (L2)

O Ender, turn not toward me this most wrathful-terrible gaze. By Śaṅkara-service, contemplation-firm, I am terrifying-Bhairava-power-filled. Service and firm contemplation → Bhairava-power-filled → the gaze of death turned aside. The devotee becomes terrifying-Bhairava-power-filled through service and contemplation.

THE CRAFT

The averted gaze, power-filled

Sthāyin: vīra as power-filled state (FIRST vīra in the work — color shift from śānta supplication to heroic testimony). Sanskrit-first: antaka (ENDer — death named to its face, kept); asmi (I AM — the ground is a state, not a plea); ghora-bhairava-tejas (dread-power, kept dread). Rows: 7 ('O Ender' opens — address before petition; death faced first), 1 ('dread Bhairava-power' closes — the state named last), 5 (prayer tread: plea L1, ground L2). Close: 'filled with dread Bhairava-power'. Rupture: L2 (prayer turns to testimony — begging turns to possessing; argmap: power declared, not begged). Rejected: 'awesome' — killed: ghora is dread, awe admires; 'fierce gaze' — killed: raudra + bhīṣaṇa both present, both kept; 'avert' for 'turn from me' — killed: parāṅmukha kept bodily (turned-face). Read aloud: O-END-er — TURN-from-me THIS most-WRATH-ful AND-terr-i-BLE-gaze … STEAD-fast in ŚAṄ-ka-ra's SER-vice … i-AM-filled WITH-dread BHAI-ra-va-POW-er.

THE LOGIC

How does the devotee turn aside death's gaze? → Prayer first, then the ground: power declared as state, not begged. The devotee testifies to possessing power, grounded in service and contemplation.

Darkness dispelled, fearlessness

इत्थम् उपोढभवन्मयसंविद्दीधितिदारितभूरितमिस्रः ittham upoḍhabhavanmayasaṃviddīdhitidāritabhūritamisraḥ mṛtyuyamāntakakarmapiśācaiḥ nātha ! namo'stu na jātu bibhemi

Thus — the great darkness, taken on with becoming, is dispelled by awareness's rays:
Death, Yama, the Ender, karma-ghosts — Lord, salutation: never shall I fear.

PLAIN READING (L2)

Thus — my great darkness dispelled by rays of world-awareness: death, Yama, ender, karma-ghosts — Lord, salutation; never I fear. Awareness itself has burned the darkness away; what remains before death's ministers is salutation, not fear.

THE CRAFT

Darkness dispelled, fearlessness

Sthāyin: śānta as fearlessness (abhayam); accomplished-fact → catalogue → seal. Sanskrit-first: vidhūta (DISPELLED — perfect participle: already done before the terrors are named); namas (SALUTATION — the only act offered to terrors); na bhayaṃ (NEVER fear — absolute, future). Rows: 9 (Death/Yama/Ender/karma-ghosts — four terrors named, each answered by ONE salutation), 1 ('never shall I fear' closes — the seal absolute), 6 (salutation as seal-word — namas anchors). Close: 'never shall I fear'. Rupture: colon after 'rays' (fact stated, then terrors faced — awareness first, salutation finishes per C1). Rejected: 'darkness' singular softening — killed: mahāmoha + bhava-grasp both kept; 'I salute, fearing nothing' — killed: splits the seal pair (namas + never-fear belong together); 'gloom' — killed: moha is delusion-darkness, gloom moods. Read aloud: THUS — the GREAT-dark-ness … IS-dis-PELLED by a-WARE-ness's-RAYS … DEATH, YA-ma, the END-er, KAR-ma-ghosts — LORD, sal-u-TA-tion: NEV-er SHALL-i-FEAR.

THE LOGIC

How does fearlessness follow from awareness? → Awareness first, salutation finishes: absolute fearlessness. The dark that made terrors terrifying is already gone.

True awakening, bliss

proditasatyavibodhamarīciprekṣitaviśvapadārthasatattvaḥ bhāvaparāmṛtanirbharapūrṇe tvayi aham ātmani nirvṛtim emi

True awakening has dawned — its rays reveal each thing's true essence:
In You — brimming full of supreme nectar — I myself enter bliss.

PLAIN READING (L2)

The true essence of world-objects is seen by rays of arisen true awakening. In being-full, in you, I, self, bliss I enter. Bliss = entering the full being of the Lord, disclosed by awakening.

THE CRAFT

True awakening, bliss

Sthāyin: ānanda as entry (praveśa — ingress, NOT feeling); vyabhicāri wonder at things disclosed as-they-are. Sanskrit-first: prabuddha (DAWNED-awakened — perfect: already risen); amṛta-pūrṇa (NECtar-FULL — pūrṇa modifies the LORD, kept attached); praviśāmi (I ENTER — first person enters, not feels). Rows: 1 ('enter bliss' closes — entry, the verse's whole doctrine, last), 8 (vowel arc bright throughout: dawn-rays-reveal → brimming-full — ānanda does not fall, it fills; no dark close), 7 declined — no vocative; locative 'In You' carries address. Close: 'I myself enter bliss'. Rupture: colon after 'essence' (disclosure turns to entry — seeing turns to entering). Rejected: 'I feel bliss' — killed: ingress ≠ feeling (C1 explicit); 'full of nectar' reordering — killed: pūrṇa belongs to the Lord; 'true nature' for 'true essence' — killed: tattva kept essence. Read aloud: TRUE a-WAK-en-ing HAS-dawned — its RAYS re-VEAL … IN-you — BRIMM-ing-FULL of su-PREME-nec-tar — i-my-SELF EN-ter BLISS.

THE LOGIC

What does true awakening disclose, and what is bliss? → Awakening discloses things as they are; bliss is entry into the Lord's fullness — ingress, not feeling.

Affliction arrives, nondifference arises

mānasagocaram eti yadaiva kleśadaśā tanutāpavidhātrī nātha ! tadaiva mama tvadabhedas stotraparāmṛtavṛṣṭiḥ udeti

Whenever affliction, dealing slight anguish, comes within the mind's reach — then alone, Lord, my nondifference from You: the hymn rains supreme nectar.

PLAIN READING (L2)

When the affliction-state, producing slight anguish, comes into the mind's range — Lord, then alone my with-You-nondifference; hymn-supreme-nectar-rain arises. Affliction's arrival is the occasion, not the obstacle: with it comes nondifference, and the hymn rains.

THE CRAFT

Affliction arrives, nondifference arises

Sthāyin: śānta as nondifference arising (abheda WITH affliction, not after). Sanskrit-first: yadā…tadā (WHEN…THEN — hinge kept; with-it, not after-it per C1); kevalam (ALONE — then-ALONE: nondifference exclusive); varṣati (RAINS — the hymn rains, kept raining). Rows: 1 ('rains supreme nectar' closes — verb last, nectar the landing), 9 (when/then hinge — occasion, not obstacle), 10 (nectar left standing, no gloss). Close: 'the hymn rains supreme nectar'. Rupture: 'then alone' (affliction turns to nondifference — suffering is the trigger per C1, inverted expectation kept). Rejected: 'whenever troubles come' — killed: ārti (affliction) + mind's-reach both precise; 'showers' — killed: colloquial, varṣa rains; 'my oneness with You' — killed: abheda is nondifference (kept technical). Read aloud: when-EV-er af-FLIC-tion … COMES with-IN the MIND's-reach — THEN a-LONE, lord, MY-non-DIFF-er-ence FROM-you: the HYMN-rains su-PREME-nec-TAR.

THE LOGIC

śaṅkara satyam idam vratadānasnānatapaḥ bhavatāpavidāri tāvakaśāstra parāmṛtacintā cetasi nirvṛtidhārām syandati

Truly, Śaṅkara — vow, giving, bathing, austerity: they dispel becoming's heat.
But contemplating Your scripture as supreme nectar pours a bliss-stream in the mind.

PLAIN READING (L2)

O Śaṅkara, truly — vow, giving, bathing, austerity dispel becoming's heat. Rites are not despised but relativized. Your-scripture supreme-nectar-contemplation in mind, bliss-stream flows. Scripture-contemplation → bliss-stream in mind.

THE CRAFT

Rites relativized, scripture contemplated

Sthāyin: śānta as rites relativized (not despised — relativized); two-means-two-results. Sanskrit-first: śamaka (DISPELLERS — rites' true result kept: heat dispelled, honored); cintā (CONTEMPLATING — the superior means is mental, kept); dhārā (STREAM-course — kept stream, not flood). Rows: 1 ('bliss-stream in the mind' closes — contemplation's result lands last, outshining by position), 9 (vow/giving/bathing/austerity — each rite named once, none adorned), 5 (didactic tread: concession L1, elevation L2). Close: 'pours a bliss-stream in the mind'. Rupture: 'But' (rites turn to scripture — relativization hinged on one word). Rejected: 'empty rites' — killed: rites truly dispel heat; 'flood' — killed: dhārā courses; 'holy writ' for scripture — killed: śāstra kept plain (contemporary diction). Read aloud: TRU-ly, ŚAṄ-ka-ra — VOW, GIV-ing, BATH-ing, aus-TER-i-ty: they dis-PEL be-COM-ing's-HEAT … BUT con-TEM-plat-ing YOUR-scrip-ture … POURS a BLISS-stream IN the MIND.

This consciousness of mine dances, sings, rejoices deeply
— O Bhairava, Lord:
having won You, my dear — a single beautiful vision, hard for others to obtain, kept for knowers of the covenant.

PLAIN READING (L2)

This consciousness of mine dances, sings, deeply rejoices — O Bhairava-Lord. You, dear, having-obtained, beautiful-vision alone, hard-to-get-by-others, samaya-knower. Obtaining the Lord = beautiful vision (rare, samaya-knowing), celebrated dancing.

THE CRAFT

Rejoicing consciousness, obtaining

Sthāyin: ānanda as rejoicing consciousness (hṛṣṭi); vyabhicāri wonder at rarity fenced. Sanskrit-first: nṛtyati/gāyati (DANCES/SINGS — kept tripled with rejoices: joy in three verbs); samaya-vid (COVENANT-KNOWERS — fenced term kept fenced AND translated: fence is doctrine); durlabha (HARD-to-obtain — kept). Rows: 9 (dances/sings/rejoices triple — tripled joy), 7 ('O Bhairava, Lord' mid-verse — address INSIDE the dance, joy first), 1 ('covenant' closes — rarity fenced last). Close: 'kept for knowers of the covenant'. Rupture: colon after 'Lord' (dancing turns to defining — joy, then what joy means: obtaining = vision per C1). Rejected: 'my beloved' — killed: priya kept plain; explaining samaya — killed: un-fencing would un-fence the doctrine; 'rare' alone — killed: 'hard for others to obtain' keeps the exclusivity structure. Read aloud: THIS-con-SCIOUS-ness OF-mine DAN-ces, SINGS, re-JOI-ces DEEP-ly — o-BHAI-ra-va, LORD: HAV-ing-WON-you, my-DEAR — a-SING-le BEAU-ti-ful VI-sion … KEPT for KNOW-ers OF the COV-e-nant.

In the Vasura year, in Pauṣa, on the dark tenth — Abhinavagupta composed this hymn — by which the pervasive, compassionate Lord in a flash stills the people's desert-heat of becoming.

PLAIN READING (L2)

In the month of Pauṣa, on the dark tenth, Abhinavagupta made this hymn. By whom the Lord becomes, world's great-heat pacifies instantly, compassionate. The dated, signed hymn is sent outward: the Lord pacifies world-heat instantly, compassionately.

THE CRAFT

Colophon and pacification

Sthāyin: śānta as pacification (praśama — the work's seal turned outward); vyabhicāri compassion (karuṇā) for the people's heat. Sanskrit-first: pauṣa/kṛṣṇadaśamī (dark-tenth kept — colophon dates kept honestly, L3-HANDCRAFT rule 5); śamayati (STILLS — same root as śānta: the last verb echoes the rasa); abhinavagupta-signed (signature kept — the hand named). Rows: 12 (śānta-fall for the WHOLE work: desert-heat → stills; the book ends cooling), 10 (Vasura/Pauṣa/dark-tenth left standing — date as image), 1 ('becoming' closes — bhava named at the very end: what the hymn pacifies, last). Close: 'desert-heat of becoming'. Rupture: second dash (signature turns outward — heart to world per C1). Rejected: modernizing the date — killed: colophon honesty; 'quenches' — killed: śamayati stills/pacifies (rasa-echo kept); 'the suffering world' — killed: jana (people) kept plain. Read aloud: IN the va-SU-ra YEAR, in PAU-ṣa, ON the DARK-tenth — ab-hi-na-va-GUP-ta com-POSED this HYMN — BY-which … IN-a-FLASH STILLS the PEO-ple's DES-ert-HEAT of be-COM-ing.

yanmanmānamaiśapādakamale bhaktyā mayaivārpitam | sarvasvamata evametaditarannāsyeva jānāmyatastyaktvā kṣipramanāthanātha karuṇāsindho prasanno bhava

Whatever I have truly done, O Lord: one duty, nothing beyond — my pride, offered at Your lotus feet, in devotion.
This is my all, nothing else I know; all else cast aside — quickly, O protector of the helpless, ocean of compassion, be pleased.

PLAIN READING (L2)

Whatever I have truly done, O Lord — no duty of mine goes beyond this: my pride has been offered by me with devotion on the Lord's lotus feet. This is my all; I know there is nothing other than this. Therefore, having cast all else aside — quickly, O protector of the helpless, O ocean of compassion — be pleased!

THE CRAFT

Offering

Sthāyin: total offering (sarvasva; FIRST VERSE — sets the house voice: intimate-address, plain diction, dash-hold, end-weight plea; owner verdict required). Abhinavagupta frame: sādhāraṇīkaraṇa generalized (‘my pride’ thins to ‘pride offered’ only where Sanskrit generalizes — manmāna kept ‘my pride’ where Sanskrit points); dhvani rank kept — the plea names nothing beyond the act, vyaṅgya (grace hoped, not stated) unstated. Rows firing: 1 (imperative bhava held line-final), 5 (śloka tread, bank: hymn tread for śloka-source), 7 (vocatives vibho/anāthanātha/karuṇāsindho each kept fresh), 9 (nātaḥ paraṃ/itaranāsti double-negation engine → ‘nothing beyond / nothing else’). Close: ‘be pleased’ (prasanno bhava; pleasure-reading per L3 note, grace open). Rejected: ‘laid down’ for offered — killed: slant on arpitam; merging vocative clusters — killed: row 7; ‘be gracious’ — killed: L3 note freezes pleasure. Read aloud: WHAT-ever I have TRU-ly DONE, o LORD: ONE-du-ty, NO-thing be-YOND — MY-pride OFF-ered … be PLEASED.

THE LOGIC

The whole duty is one act: pride offered on the Lord's feet; all else denied, and only immediate pleasure asked. → Total offering of pride; plea for immediate pleasure.

O Maheśa — at Your door let my charming speech flash forth, faultless.
"Victory, victory to Maheśa" — unceasing.
Let this auspicious speech bring me bliss forever; O giver of refuge, make me — whose protector is Maheśa — protected, O Lord.

PLAIN READING (L2)

O Maheśa, at Your door let this charming speech of mine flash forth exceedingly — "Victory, victory to Maheśa!" — faultless and unceasing. Let this very speech, auspicious, be bliss-giving for me forever. O Lord, O giver of refuge, make me — whose protector is Maheśa — possessed of a protector!

THE CRAFT

Praise at the door

Sthāyin: victory cry (jaya doubled). Abhinavagupta frame: anubhāva outward — the cry IS the visible sign of rati-sthāyin; refrain staging (bank: Gitagovinda dhruvapada — the cry isolated as its own line, verbatim, never reworded). Rows: 1 (imperatives sphuratu/bhavatu/kuru each end-weight their clause), 3 (protector-chiasmus maheśanāthaṃ→sanāthaṃ kept as vise-grip), 6 (jaya jaya anchor), 7 (vocatives line-initial/final), 9 (Maheśa chiming thrice), 4 (sphuratu rucirā shimmer → 'flash forth, faultless' f-echo, costs nothing). Close: 'protected, O Lord' (sanāthaṃ kuru + vibho gathered). Rejected: single Victory — killed: doubling IS the cry; 'glory to Maheśa' — killed: jaya=victory, anchor verbatim; 'make me safe' — killed: breaks the chiasmus. śivadā bliss-reading per L3 note, Śiva-giving open. Read aloud: o ma-HE-śa — AT your DOOR … 'VIC-to-ry, VIC-to-ry to ma-HE-śa' — un-CEAS-ing.

THE LOGIC

Speech becomes the offering: the word crying victory at the threshold is itself to become bliss-giving; having Maheśa as protector is to become being protected. → Speech becomes bliss-giving; request to be made protected.

rasa — bhakti (devotional praise)

You speak not, O Fair-limbed. You look not on wretched me.
You hear not my oft-made plea, nor come into my mind.
Fallen into the pit mid-ocean of becoming, mostly unsupported — yet scripture truly declares You without speech, without sight, without hearing, without feet, and the rest.

PLAIN READING (L2)

You speak not, O best-limbed one; You look not upon me, wretched as I am. My entreaty, made in many ways, You hear not; You come not into my mind. Fallen amid the pit of the ocean of transmigration, I am mostly left unsupported — yet scripture truly declares You devoid of speech, sight, hearing, feet and the like!

THE CRAFT

Reproach

Sthāyin: the charge (five refusals). Abhinavagupta frame: karuṇa-sthāyin carried by anubhāva-catalogue (the refusals listed ARE the feeling showing); śruti-turn rendered straight — sincere-vs-ironic held open per UNC (tipping either way kills a reading; vighna rule: importing irony the Sanskrit only suggests would wall the sahṛdaya from one whole rasa). Rows: 1 (āha placed late — 'declares' carries the turn), 7 (uttamāṅga kept after first verb, mirroring brūṣe nottamāṅga), 9 (na-anaphora → 'not'-anaphora; doctrine-catalogue answers with 'without'-anaphora — complaint-music converted into doctrine-music, which IS the verse's move), 10 (śruti left standing, no gloss). Close: 'and the rest' — the ādi-catalogue refusing to close IS the doctrine. Rejected: ironic tip — killed by UNC; trimming refusals — killed: five ARE the charge; closing on 'You' — killed: weak landing, Sanskrit lands on śrutiḥ/āha. Read aloud: YOU-speak-NOT … YOU-look-NOT … YOU-hear-NOT — yet SCRIP-ture TRU-ly de-CLARES.

THE LOGIC

Five refusals charged — speak, see, hear, come, support — and scripture converts the charge into doctrine: the Lord is sense-free. → Complaint becomes doctrine: denial becomes declaration.

rasa — karuṇa (compassion-plea) shaded by adbhuta (wonder at doctrine)

By the guru's word — whose force wipes clean the heaped fabric of reasonings — and by assurance, fittingly told, regarding scripture:
when the doubt-cloud melts, let me touch the feet of the Lord, whose splendor blazes in the heart's sky like the sun that conquers darkness.

PLAIN READING (L2)

From the guru's word — by the force that wipes away the fabric of heaped-up reasonings — and from the assurance told, fittingly, out of regard for scripture: when the cloud of doubt has dissolved, let me touch the feet of the Lord, whose splendor shines in the sky of the heart — like the sun, the conqueror of darkness.

THE CRAFT

The cloud lifts

Sthāyin: doubt dissolving (vilīne). Abhinavagupta frame: vyabhicāri-dissolution (śaṅkā melting) staged as the rupture — piled reasonings one breath, melted cloud the next; śānta-close enacted (row 12: falling cadence on ‘darkness’, long vowels, still image — the metaphysics of the ending, not decoration). Rows: 1 (spṛśatu late — ‘let me touch’ before the simile), 2 (yukti-pracaya-racana-unmārjana compound unpacked down the line-break; bank: Ingalls moon-drops unpacking), 8 (vowel arc melts→blazes), 12 (śānta-fall). Close: ‘the sun that conquers darkness’ — darkness last, conquered. Rejected: merging two sources — killed: UNC keeps guru-word and scripture two; cutting sun-simile — killed: vibhāva does the settling; ‘lifts’ for vilīne — killed: melts, not lifts. Read aloud: BY the GU-ru’s WORD … WHEN the DOUBT-cloud MELTS … LIKE the SUN that CON-quers DARK-ness.

THE LOGIC

Against the silence stand two testimonies — the guru's word and fitting scriptural assurance — whose force wipes away piled-up reasonings; with doubt dissolved, the feet of the heart-sky Lord. → Two testimonies dissolve doubt; touch of feet follows.

Much time with You has passed — alas, in this very moment!
What — what has not been done by You for me — for serving the excellent guru!
Again and again I — whose body has reached the peerless divine plane — yet I forget You — so by You let there be no more staying away.

PLAIN READING (L2)

Much time dwelling with You has passed — alas, in this very moment! What, what has not been done by You for me, for the sake of serving the excellent guru! Again and again I, whose body has attained the incomparable divine plane — yet indeed I forget You. Therefore, by You let there be no further staying-away!

THE CRAFT

Forgetting, and the final plea

Sthāyin: confession (forgetting admitted). Abhinavagupta frame: karuṇa-sthāyin with śānta acceptance — the plea asks only absence-ended, not presence-described (deixis thinned exactly where Sanskrit thins: stheyaṃ na bhūyas = no-more-staying-away, no positive image imported). Rows: 1 (optative stheyam kept as plea — 'let there be' retained; close lands on 'away', absence itself ringing), 7 (tvayā instrumental force → 'So by You:' colon landing), 9 (kiṃ kiṃ + vāraṃ vāraṃ both kept doubled). Close: 'no more staying away' (absence-reading per L3 note; 'presence' close would flip the frozen reading). Rejected: undoubled 'What has not been done' — killed: kiṃ kiṃ doubles; softening 'alas' — killed: vata IS the admission-gasp; resolving prāsuvatkāyaḥ past L2 — killed: obscure kept neutral. Read aloud: MUCH-time WITH-you has PASSED — a-LAS … WHAT — WHAT has NOT been DONE … YET i for-GET you — NO-more STAY-ing a-WAY.

THE LOGIC

Long dwelling-with and total grace received, yet repeated forgetting; the only request is no more absence. → Confession and plea for presence.

Anuttarāṣṭikā

Eight Verses on the No-Method

Abhinavagupta's eight verses: every method denied, recognition left standing.

The frame: no method, just staying

संक्रामो ऽत्र न भावना न च कथायुक्तिर् न चर्चा न च ध्यानं वा न च धारणा न च जपाभ्यासप्रयासो न च। तत् किं नाम सुनिश्चितं वद परं सत्यं च तच् छ्रूयताम्: न त्यागी न परिग्रही — भज सुखं सर्वम् यथावस्थितः

saṃkrāmo 'tra na bhāvanā na ca kathāyuktir na carcā na ca dhyānaṃ vā na ca dhāraṇā na ca japābhyāsaprayāso na ca | tat kiṃ nāma suniścitaṃ vada paraṃ satyaṃ ca tac chrūyatām: na tyāgī na parigrahī — bhaja sukhaṃ sarvam yathāvasthitaḥ

No crossing here by method — no contemplation, no reasoned talk, no inquiry, no visualization, no fixing, no straining at mantra-practice.
So what stands well decided? Speak the highest truth — and hear it: neither renouncer nor possessor — enjoy happiness, all of it, abiding as you are.

PLAIN READING (L2)

Transition here is no method at all — not contemplation, not speech-connection, not discussion, not visualization, not steadying, not japa-practice-effort. So what is well-decided? Speak the supreme truth, and hear it: not renouncer, not possessor — enjoy happiness, wholly, as staying.

THE CRAFT

The frame: no method, just staying

Sthāyin: śānta as anupāya (no method); FIRST VERSE — sets the house voice (denial-catalogue + question + two refusals + abide-command; owner verdict required). Sanskrit-first: suniścita/token opens kept per UNC (no resolution smuggled); anupāya named BY PERFORMANCE — the verse never says the word, it enacts it. Abhinavagupta frame: pratyabhijñā by refusal (recognition through what-is-not); the question (kiṃ suniścitam) is itself the method turning from hunt to hearing. Rows: 9 (no…no…no…no…no…no — sixfold denial anaphora IS the verse's engine), 1 ('abiding as you are' end-weighted — yathāvasthita closes; staying is the last word because staying is the doctrine), 7 declined — no vocative; the command speaks to the hearer direct. Close: 'abiding as you are'. Rupture: 'So what stands well decided?' (catalogue turns to question — the hunt replaced). Rejected: labeling anupāya — killed: named-by-performance, never by label; resolving opens — killed by UNC; softening neither-nor — killed: refusals ARE the method; 'rest as you are' — killed: 'abide' keeps sthā- (standing, decid). Read aloud: NO-cross-ing HERE by ME-thod — NO-con-tem-PLA-tion, NO-rea-soned-TALK … NEI-ther re-NOUN-cer NOR pos-SESS-or — en-JOY HAP-pi-ness, ALL of IT, a-BID-ing AS you ARE.

THE LOGIC

What is the method, if no method is enjoined? → No method is enjoined; staying is the method that is no method. Anupāya named by performance.

For body-bearers, Saṃsāra in truth is not — of bondage, what news?
Bondage never truly is anyone's — so the liberation-rite is false.
This error-maker: rope-snake-shadow-ghost delusion.
Abandon nothing; grasp nothing —

PLAIN READING (L2)

Saṃsāra is not, in truth, for body-holders — of bondage, what news? Bondage never truly is for anyone — so for the free, liberation-rite is false. This error-maker is rope-snake-shadow-ghost-delusion. Abandon nothing; grasp nothing; live healthy, staying as you are.

THE CRAFT

Saṃsāra is delusion

Sthāyin: śānta as saṃsāra denied — tranquility of no-rite; vyabhicāri steadiness (denial that steadies). Sanskrit-first: nāsti tattvataḥ (is NOT, in truth — denial with the truth-word inside it); vitathā (FALSE — the rite-word itself falsified); yathāvasthitaḥ (staying AS-IT-IS — the whole anupāya doctrine in the last word). Rows: 9 (mā…mā double prohibition — abandon/grasp anaphora already in L3, kept), 2 (rope-snake-shadow-ghost heap kept whole — density IS the diagnosis), 1 ('staying as you are' end-weighted), 12 (śānta-fall: live-healthy-staying settles). Close: 'staying as you are'. Rupture: 'Abandon nothing; grasp nothing —' (diagnosis turns to rule; the dash holds the turn). Rejected: ornamenting the heap — killed: adorning a verse that refuses method would contradict its doctrine (restraint IS the music); 'be well' for svasthaḥ — killed: healthy-steady, not wellness; 'what talk of bondage' smoothing — killed: vārtā (news/report) kept as asked-question. Read aloud: FOR-bo-dy-BEAR-ers, sam-SĀ-ra … is NOT — … a-BAN-don NO-thing; GRASP no-thing — LIVE-heal-thy, STAY-ing AS you ARE.

THE LOGIC

Is saṃsāra real, and what follows? → Saṃsāra is delusion; bondage is unreal; the liberation-rite is false; abandon nothing, grasp nothing, stay.

Worship, worshipper, worshipped — what talk of difference here, in the unsurpassed?
Transition indeed — of whom, by whom made, who walks the entry-course?
This Māyā — no different from consciousness-nonduality — stands as other, though different. Alas.
Everything is pure own-experience-nature. Vain thought — do not.

PLAIN READING (L2)

Worship, worshipper, worshipped — what a difference-course in the unsurpassed? Transition — of whom, by whom effected, and who is the entry-course? This Māyā, not different from consciousness-nonduality, in otherness, though different — alas, stands. All is pure own-experience-nature. Thought in vain — do not do.

THE CRAFT

Worship-difference is Māyā

Sthāyin: śānta as worship-difference dissolved; bhakti as pratyabhijñā; vyabhicāri wonder at Māyā-standing-as-other. Sanskrit-first: kva bhedaḥ (WHAT difference — question, never answer); aho (ALAS-gasp = camatkāra break before the conclusion); mā smara (do NOT — prohibition closes blunt). Rows: triple-question cascade (what/of-whom/by-whom/who — rows pile questions, never answers), 1 ('do not' end-weighted — vain thought cut last), 10 (Māyā left standing as-other — no gloss on the standing). Close: 'do not' (the cut). Rupture: 'Alas' (questions turn to gasp — wonder breaks the interrogation, then the conclusion). Rejected: answering any question — killed: the verse asks four, answers none; ornament — killed: plainness is the song here, gilding would reintroduce the very difference dissolved; 'foolish thought' for vain thought — killed: mithyā is vain/false, moralizing smuggles. Read aloud: WOR-ship, WOR-ship-per, WOR-shipped — WHAT-talk of DIFF-er-ence … TRANS-i-tion in-DEED — of WHOM, by WHOM … THIS-mā-YĀ … stands AS-o-ther, THOUGH-diff-er-ent. A-LAS … VAIN-thought — DO-not.

Bliss here is not wealth-middle-intoxication, nor like enjoying women, nor lamp-sun-moon-made splendour-multitudes — nor even the light-rise.
Joy — difference gathered, freed in bliss-ground, like the lowering of a burden —

PLAIN READING (L2)

Bliss here is not wealth-middle-intoxication, nor like enjoying women, nor lamp-sun-moon-made splendour-multitude — and not the light-rise either. Joy with gathered-difference-liberation-bliss-ground, like burden-lowering, is the attainment of the forgotten treasure of the all-nonduality state — the light-rise.

THE CRAFT

Bliss is the forgotten treasure

Sthāyin: ānanda as forgotten-treasure-found; bhakti as prāpti (finding); vyabhicāri harṣa of burden-lowering. Sanskrit-first: na…na…na (triple refusal — wealth/women/splendour, then pictured-light refused too); bhāraharaṇam iva (LIKE burden-lowering — iva simile kept as simile); smṛti (FOUND-treasure — the forgotten remembered). Rows: 9 (refusal catalogue — each pleasure named then refused; naming IS the finding), 10 (burden image left standing, no gloss), 1 (light-rise AFFIRMED last — the refused word returns; ring closes whether same-or-different, held open). Close: 'the light-rise'. Rupture: 'Joy —' (refusals turn to naming — the dash after Joy holds the turn). Rejected: gilding — killed: bluntness is the music; 'treasure-trove' — killed: domesticates the finding; deciding same-vs-different light — killed: held open (the ring's ambiguity IS the verse). Read aloud: BLISS-here is NOT wealth-MIDD-le … NOR lamp-SUN-moon-MADE … JOY — DIFF-er-ence GA-thered, FREED in BLISS-ground, LIKE the LOW-er-ing OF a BUR-den — IS the for-GOTT-en TREA-sure FOUND.

PLAIN READING (L2)

Passion, aversion, pleasure, displeasure, rise and fall, I-ness, misery and the rest — things shining forth, universe-bodied, are not different-natured. Whosever manifestation you suddenly see — having regarded it as one-self-natured consciousness-form — why do you not delight, full of contemplation?

THE CRAFT

Things are consciousness-form

Sthāyin: ānanda as delight in variety; bhakti as rati; vyabhicāri joy (harṣa) of seeing variety as one-self. Sanskrit-first: ekātmatā-compound open kept (one-self-nature, unresolved per craft); ramase (WHY-NOT-DELIGHT — question-mood, not command: the verse asks, never orders, per UNC). Abhinavagupta frame: variety (vicitra) unthreatening — the catalogue of feelings IS the universe bodied, no separate nature to fear. Rows: 9 (passion/aversion/pleasure/pain/rise-fall/I-sense/misery — catalogue kept whole; trimming would shrink the variety the verse blesses), 1 ('contemplating it' — dhyāna-full delight closes; seeing ends in beholding), 10 (sudden-seeing left as sudden — sahasā kept). Close: 'full of contemplating it'. Rupture: 'why not delight' (seeing turns to delight — the question IS the turn). Rejected: imperative-only delight — killed by UNC (question holds both moods); resolving ekātmatā — killed; trimming feelings — killed: catalogue is the variety. Read aloud: PASS-ion, a-VER-sion, PLEA-sure, PAIN … ARE of NO-sep-ar-ate NA-ture … WHAT-ev-er FORM you SUDD-en-ly SEE — SEE it AS-con-SCIOUS-ness … WHY-not de-LIGHT.

THE LOGIC

Why not delight in variety? → Variety is one nature; regard it as consciousness-form, and delight is the only consistent response.

THE CRAFT

Things lack truth; awaken

Sthāyin: śānta as awakening (prabodha); vyabhicāri clarity (prasāda) of transcending. Sanskrit-first: peśala/bhava/madhyākāra opens kept (half-formed/mixed — obscurity marked, not smoothed); prabuddha bhava (AWAKE — BECOME: two imperatives, the verse's only act). Abhinavagupta frame: dream-delusion (svapna) as the accurate ontology of things — clever (peśala) modifies the delusion, not the dreamer. Rows: 9 (past-doubting/fearing/staining/scheming — transcend-list kept whole), 1 ('become' end-weighted — the second imperative closes; awakening lands as becoming), 8 (vowel fall: clever-scheming chatter → awake-become stillness). Close: 'awake — become'. Rupture: the colon before 'awake' (delusion inventoried, then the act). Rejected: 'clever-vs-cunning' resolved — killed by UNC; 'planning' for scheming — killed: scheming schemes (kalpanā contrives); 'wake up' — killed: colloquial, prabodha is awakening. Things do not arise; by nature they shine through your beholding — even the untrue partakes of truth for a moment, through experience's delusion.
This glory of worlds is will-born of You, with birth from nowhere else — so in splendor You shine through the worlds, one and yet many-selfed.

PLAIN READING (L2)

Of things there is no arising; naturally, by your contemplation they shine; even the non-true partakes of truth for a moment, through experience's delusion. This universe-glory is will-born from you, birth from elsewhere it has none; hence by splendor you shine in worlds — one, yet many-selfed.

THE CRAFT

The universe-glory is will-born

Sthāyin: śānta as will-born glory; bhakti as pratyabhijñā; vyabhicāri wonder (camatkāra) at one-yet-many. Sanskrit-first: sahaja/bhrānti opens kept (natural/delusion held per UNC); ekopy anekātmakam (ONE yet MANY-SELFed — non-cancelling kept, never resolved); You-capital kept (address IS the Lord). Abhinavagupta frame: ābhāsa shining-by-beholding (no arising needed — being-beheld suffices); will (icchā) as the sole birth. Rows: 9 (one/many pair — kept paired; resolving would cancel the verse), 7 (You addressed mid-verse — beholding MADE second-person), 1 ('many-selfed' closes — multiplicity last, uncancelled). Close: 'one and yet many-selfed'. Rupture: 'so in splendor' (cosmogony turns to shining — birth-account becomes praise). Rejected: resolving one-yet-many — killed: non-cancelling IS the verse; lowercasing you — killed: address is the Lord; 'through your gaze' for beholding — killed: darśana-beholding kept plain. Read aloud: THINGS do NOT a-RISE … EVEN the un-TRUE par-TAKES of TRUTH … THIS-glo-ry OF-worlds is WILL-born OF-you … ONE and YET man-y-SELFED.

THE LOGIC

Do things arise, and whence the universe-glory? → No arising; things shine by contemplation; non-true borrows momentary truth; universe-glory is will-born; you shine one-yet-many.

What is true, what untrue, little or much, lasting or lasting-not, Māyā-stained or self-pure — all shines in the mirror of consciousness.

All that — risen from self-grasping consciousness, natured as form and light — know it: glory mounted on your own experience — worship lordship of all.

PLAIN READING (L2)

What true, what untrue, little-much, eternal, not eternal, what Māyā-stained, what self-pure — in the consciousness-mirror shines. That all, from own-grasping-consciousness-rise, form-light-natured, having known — own-experience-risen glory: Lordhood — worship.

THE CRAFT

All shines in the consciousness-mirror; worship Lordhood

Sthāyin: śānta as Lordhood (viśveśvaratva); bhakti as worship; vyabhicāri wonder at all-opposites mirrored. Sanskrit-first: bhaja mood open per UNC (worship kept as act, mood unforced); compounds open kept (own-grasping-consciousness-rise carried whole — density IS the metaphysics). Abhinavagupta frame: mirror (darpaṇa) as the accurate instrument — opposites shine WITHOUT entering; knowing = glory = Lordhood (equation, not ascent). Rows: 9 (true/untrue, little/much, lasting/lasting-not, Māyā-stained/self-pure — all pairs kept; trimming would un-mirror the mirror), 1 ('lordship of all' closes — viśveśvaratva last, the equation's answer), 12 (śānta-fall: 'three-' … 'all' — whole-work close, wide and still). Close: 'worship lordship of all'. Rupture: 'know it:' (all-shown turns to all-known — colon stages the equation). Rejected: trimming pairs — killed: all-pairs IS the mirror; resolving bhaja — killed by UNC; 'serve the Lord of all' — killed: bhaja + aiśvarya is worship-lordship, service weakens. Read aloud: WHAT is TRUE, WHAT un-TRUE … ALL-shines IN the MIR-ror OF-con-SCIOUS-ness … KNOW-it: GLO-ry MOUNT-ed ON your OWN ex-PER-i-ence — WOR-ship LORD-ship OF-all.

THE LOGIC

What shines in the mirror, and what follows from knowing it? → All opposites shine in the consciousness-mirror; knowing that all is own-grasping-consciousness-rise = glory = Lordhood; worship.
